

Brook Farm Group Selects Matt Cotton as Vice President of Land Acquisitions

December 26, 2023

ATLANTA — Brook Farm Group, an Atlanta-based development company, has hired Matt Cotton as Vice President of Land Acquisition. Cotton will be based in the company's Atlanta office. In this role, Cotton will oversee Brook Farm Group's strategy to identify and acquire new land sites for multifamily development across the southeast.

Cotton previously worked in the Atlanta suburb of Alpharetta as a director of site selection for the Southeast Region of Trilogy Residences. Prior to this, he served as a real estate development manager for Circle K in Charlotte, North Carolina. He earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Business Administration from the University of Lynchburg.
